ABSTRACT

This bibliography contains several separate listings of resources relating to Ohio history, geography, and government. Resources available through public libraries and the State Library of Ohio are listed alphabetically by author, and the title, publisher, and publication date are provided. Works suitable for elementary students, which are listed separately by author, with title, publisher, and publication date, include fiction, nonfiction, and biographies. Films available to school districts through Area Media centers are also listed separately. Additional listings include other print sources such as maps and periodicals, other agencies where resources may be found, materials available for purchase, and free materials from state agencies. BIBLIOGRAPHY
Resources for Ohio History, Geography and Government
Open House, April 1978

Librarians and teachers throughout Ohio are seeking information about resources relating to Ohio history, geography, and government. To assist them in this effort, we have prepared a bibliography of accessible resources for library and classroom use. Inclusion in this bibliography does not constitute an endorsement of the materials by The Ohio Department of Education.

Compiled by: Dr. Dianna Mattern, Consultant, Social Studies/ Humanities, Ohio Department of Education

Dr. Anne Hyland, Consultant, School Media Program, Ohio Department of Education

RESOURCES AVAILABLE THROUGH PUBLIC LIBRARIES

In 1976 The State Library of Ohio conducted a survey of public libraries in Ohio to determine Ohio history, government, and geography books that were most used. The list was compiled and all libraries were free to order as many titles as they needed. Therefore in most cases, the following resources will be available in your public library.
